

Vanessa Holland-Weil is an ordained evangelist who believes God is pouring out His presence on the Church today. Her ministry has a strong emphasis on the Holy Spirit and is marked frequently by divine healing, spiritual gifts and miracles. Vanessa has been in ministry more than three decades as a pastor and on pastoral staffs, often working with students and leading worship.

Recently, Vanessa and her husband Tony have launched StirDeep ministries. This ministry is passionately committed to intercession, encouraging pastors and uncapping the wells of revival. Together they travel extensively, preaching conferences, weekends and special services. This ministry is experiencing a move of God's glory and is committed to what the Lord has ahead.
