

Max Irhyam pastors Yesuah's Love Heals in Minneapolis, MN, a body of believers birthed out of prophetic prayer and passion for interceding for America, Israel, revival, awakening, and the last days harvest. Married with five children and three grandchildren, Max is also the author of Live in Faith: From Islam to Christ.

Born in Jordan to Palestinian parents, Max was raised in Islam and served in the Jordanian Army.

He relocated to Minnesota in his mid-20s and spent nearly 30 years working in manufacturing and starting his own business.

When his business was failing, he prayed in desperation to Allah, and audibly heard Jesus call him by name saying, "Come to Me." Max became a follower of Jesus soon after.

God turned his heart from hate towards Israel to love for Israel. Max is committed to praying for and speaking out in support of Israel.
